

Graham Dart
Principal

Graham has taught in a range of educational settings, from the Southwest of Western Australia to the Pilbara. As principal, he brings to Cottesloe Primary a wealth of experiences and strong desire to celebrate the school's strong history and build on its successes. He is committed to ensuring staff at Cottesloe Primary are equipped with the skills, knowledge and resources to allow our students to discover solutions and overcome challenges throughout their lives. He values the opportunity of working with such a highly motivated and capable staff and supportive community.

He is married and has two grown up sons, who he is very proud of.
